

KEN BRADWELL SOCCER TOURNAMENT

JURAVINSKI CANCER CENTRE
JOSEPH BRANT HOSPITAL
OAKVILLE TRAFALGAR MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

The Ken Bradwell Foundation was established in 2016 to purchase priority medical equipment for Joseph Brant Hospital in Burlington, Oakville Trafalgar Memorial Hospital in Oakville and Juravinski Cancer Centre in Hamilton – the three main hospitals where Ken – a player and coach in the Burlington Soccer League for 20 years -- was treated for cardiac-related issues and cancer.

The Foundation is supported by the Ken Bradwell Soccer Tournament (KBST), which is the main fundraiser and is hosted jointly by the Burlington Soccer Club and Burlington OldTimers Soccer Club, and through donations collected year-round.

RAFFLE PRIZES

The post-tournament social, Kennypalooza! features trophy presentations, prize draws, and other social activities.

Surplus inventory, discontinued lines of products, promotional items, gift certificates and cards, household linens, kitchen items, luggage, sportswear, sporting goods, the use of a company box at a sports venue for one evening ... the list of items which can be used for the raffle is endless, and we can use just about anything. All are greatly appreciated.

A tax letter can be provided for gifts-in-kind.
